Dear Sponsor/Supporter of the Rutherglen Annual Agricultural Show,

The 135th Rutherglen Annual Agricultural Show will be held on Sunday, October 19th.

Rutherglen Agricultural Society is determined for the show to continue and thrive again this year; the only Ag Show within Indigo Shire - a tradition we look forward to maintaining for many years to come.

After the tremendous success of last year's show, the Ag Society will again be making gate entry to the show free for all who attend. We are hopeful this will allow a lot more of the community to once again attend the show and enjoy the displays and competitions on offer.

We are pleased that we have renewed enthusiasm around the organisation of the show, with some new volunteers and committee members to help organize and contribute exciting ideas to reinvigorate our community event. These volunteers are working hard as I write to ensure that events, displays and competitions both outside and in the pavilions will be ready for Sunday, October 19th.

Rutherglen Agricultural Society is asking for your support in any way you see fit. Any contribution is much appreciated and essential for us to offer entertainment and displays on show day that will continue to engage the community.
